

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

Stewardship Scripture and Resources

PRAYER:

Prayer is vital to everything we do as we seek the direction of the Holy Spirit to empower our lives.
Ephesians 6:18; Colossians 4:2,3

WORSHIP:

We passionately worship God, experiencing God's life-changing presence.
Mark 12:30; Psalm 95:1,2,6

EVANGELISM:

Lost people matter to God and their salvation is important to us.
Colossians 4:5,6; Luke 19:10

DISCIPLESHIP:

We teach God's Word boldly and build relationships in which we hold each other accountable.
Acts 20:20; II Timothy 1:2, 3:16,17

SERVICE:

We are called to use our gifts in loving service.
Matthew 25:40; Romans 12:4,5

COMMUNITY:

As God's family, we honor each other in love.
Romans 12:10; I Peter 3:8,9

EXCELLENCE:

We serve the Lord with our whole heart.
Colossians 3:23,24; I Corinthians 10:31

INTEGRITY:

Following Christ's example we strive to live and speak with integrity.
Psalm 19:14; Titus 2:7,8

STEWARDSHIP:

We recognize that all we have belongs to God, and we cheerfully give our time, talents and resources for God's glory.
Romans 12:1,2; Malachi 3:10

NETWORKING:

We are called to serve the greater body of Christ by encouraging, sending, equipping and sharing resources.
Romans 12:4,5; Ephesians 4:11-13,16

The Bible is a book about giving, with more promises related to giving than to any other subject. For example, the subject of "believing" appears 272 times, "prayer" 371 times, and "love" 714 times; while "giving" is mentioned 2,162 times! Jesus talked more about giving than anything else; more than half of the parables have to do with money and worldly goods.

“Love those who love you, what reward will you get?” (Mat 5:43-46)

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

TITHING:

Putting God first in our resources

"The purpose of tithing is to teach you to always put God first in your life." (Deut 14:23)

Stewardship Preparation and Perspectives

"To whom much is given, much is expected." --Luke 12:48

"Whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap" --Galatians 6:7

"For it is in giving that we receive." --St. Francis of Assisi

"Money giving is very good criterion of a person's mental health. Generous people are rarely mentally ill people." --Karl Menninger, MD

"We should give as we would receive, cheerfully, quickly, and without hesitation." --Seneca

"All worthwhile humans have good thoughts, ideas and good intentions, precious few of them ever translate those into action." --John Hancock

"Whatsoever you did for the least of my brothers, you did for me."
--Matthew 25:40

"A widow gave two copper coins to the church. Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "That poor widow gave more than all the others...she put in everything she had." --Mark 12:41

"The kingdom of heaven is near... Freely you have received, now freely give."
--Matthew 10:7

"Do not judge, and you will not be judged...forgive and you will be forgiven, give and it will be given to you. For the measure you use, it will be measured to you."
--Luke 6:37

"People do not light a lamp and put it under a bowl. They put it on a stand to give light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven."
--Matthew 5:15

"God loveth a cheerful giver." 2 Corinthians 9:7, "He also accepteth from a grouch."

"This is the true joy in life, the being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; the being thoroughly worn out before you are thrown on the scrap heap; the being a force of nature instead of a feverish selfish little clod of ailments and grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy." --George Bernard Shaw

"NO person was ever honored for what he received. Honor has been the reward for what he gave." --Calvin Coolidge

"When we grow old, there can only be one regret—not to have given enough of ourselves." --Eleonora Duse

"No one would remember the Good Samaritan if he only had good intentions. He gave money as well." --Margaret Thatcher

"Many people give a tenth to the Lord, --a tenth of what they ought to."

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

“A cheerful giver does not count the cost of what he gives. His heart is set on pleasing and cheering him to whom the gift is given.” --Julain of Norwich 1373

“The earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind...”
--Genesis 1:12

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.” -- Galatians 6:7

Your seed must be planted.
You must give your seed away to receive something.
You must plant what you expect to harvest.
Your harvest size is established when your seed is sown.
Your seed must be planted in good ground.
You must always wait a period of time between planting and harvesting.
You must maintain your crops for a proper harvest.
You must always sow to your harvest size, not from your harvest size.
A part of your harvest is for sowing again.
A part of your harvest is for you to keep.
Your harvest is a miracle.

“Remember this—if you give little, you will get little. A farmer who plants just a few seeds will get only a small crop, but if he plants much, he will reap much.”
--II Corinthians 9:6 TLB

Seed—faith is giving away something you have...a seed...to create something you don't have. Faith is proof that something exists though we do not presently see it. When we agree in faith (St. Matthew 18:19) Blessings are inevitable!

“A hundred times each day I remind myself that my inner and outer life are based on the labors of other men, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give an the same measures I have received and am still receiving.”
--Albert Einstein

“In your case it is easier to do good than to be good.” --Bill Kalahurka

“The sage does not accumulate for himself. The more he uses for others, the more he has himself. The more he gives to others, the more he possesses of his own. The way of heaven is to benefit others and not to injure.” --Lao Tzu

WE GIVE TO LOVE

Giving is such a Selfish Thing

Notes and Quotes on the Joys of Heartfelt Service

John-Roger and Peter McWilliams

Hold Fast to the Great Image, and all the world will come to you and yours
Tao Te Ching # 35

Harry Emerson Fosdick

The Sea of Galilee and the Dead Sea are made of the same water. It flows down, clear and cool, from the heights of Hermon and the roots of the Cedars of Lebanon. The Sea of Galilee makes beauty of it, for the Sea of Galilee has an outlet. It gets to give. It gathers in its riches that it may pour them out again to fertilize the Jordan plain. But the Dead Sea with the same water makes horror. For the Dead Sea has no outlet. It gets to keep.

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

Jesus of Nazareth (Luke 12:48)

From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

Seneca (First Century)

If wisdom were offered me with the proviso that I should keep it shut up and refrain from declaring it, I should refuse. There's no delight in owning anything unshared.

Jesus of Nazareth (Luke 6:41-42)

Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, "Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye," when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

Norman Vincent Peale

The man who lives for himself is a failure. Even if he gains much wealth, position or power he still is a failure. The man who lives for others has achieved true success. A rich man who consecrates his wealth and his position to the good of humanity is a success. A poor man who gives of his service and his sympathy to others has achieved true success even though material prosperity or outward honors never come to him.

Chinese Proverb (Adopted as the motto of the Christophers)

It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness.

Shakespeare

How far that little candle throws his beams! So shines a good deed in a naughty world.

Jesus of Nazareth (Matthew 7:9-10)

Which of you if his son asks for bread will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?

Jesus of Nazareth (John 13:34-35)

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.

Jesus of Nazareth (Mark 9:35)

If anyone wants to be first, he must be the very last, and the servant of all.

A lot of people are willing to give God the credit, but not too many are willing to give him the cash. (Author's note—We don't know where this one came from, but are bets are on "Laugh-In.")

... Forgiveness - Putting Principle (God) over personality

In The Quest: A Journey of Spiritual Rediscovery, the Jafollas write: "Your spiritual progress is at a standstill until you practice forgiveness. "Harboring unforgiveness and resentment in our hearts does not hurt others. It hurts us. It eats away at the soul, filling it with bitterness and blocking the free flow of God's love, which is the essence of our true nature."

... Service as an Act of Devotion to God - Putting God first in our actions

We believe all service is an act of devotion to God. We draw closer to God as we draw closer, in loving service, to each other. Service is a key part of spiritual growth and personal transformation. To evolve, you've got to get involved.

Albert Schweitzer said: "The only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have sought and found how to serve." And Henry Drummond wrote: "You will find, as you look back upon your life, that the moments that stand out are the moments when you have done things for others."

GIVE TO LIVE

How Giving Can Change Your Life

Douglas M. Lawson, Ph.D.

Physical Benefits

- Greater Longevity
- Significant reduction in toxic stress chemicals in the body (and so less stress)
- Enhanced functioning of the immune system
- Decreased metabolic rate
- Improved cardiovascular circulation
- Healthier sleep
- Help in maintaining good health

Emotional Benefits

- Increased self-acceptance
- Reduced self-absorption and sense of isolation
- Increased endorphin release (which provides a natural emotional “high”)
- Expanded sense of control over one’s life and circumstances
- Increased ability to cope with crises
- Stronger feelings of personal satisfaction
- Improved concentration and enjoyment of experiences
- Enhanced compassion, empathy, sensitivity to others
- Reduced inner stress and conflict

Spiritual Benefits

- Greater connectedness to God
- More receptivity to spiritual guidance
- Added involvement in charitable activity
- Heightened sense of appreciation and acceptance of others
- Sustained peace of mind
- Greater clarity about the meaning and purpose of life
- Enhanced equality of life

Chinese Proverb

A bit of fragrance always clings to the hand that gives you roses.

Eleanor Roosevelt

What shall I do with my life? How much am I willing to give of myself, of my time, of my love?

Dr. Robert Schuller, the pastor of the Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, California, said in his best seller The Be Happy Attitudes, “We all know people who do not lie, kill, steal... (who) live a life of ease, comfort and non-involvement. They appear to be kind and gentle and we are tempted to judge them to be ‘loving people’. But real love is sacrificial commitment. If they take no daring risk, they’re good—but for what.” When Dr. Schuller asked psychologist Dr. Joyce Brothers what our deepest need was, she replies, “...human beings need love. It doesn’t have to be the love between a man and a woman. It can be love of mankind.”

Ralph Waldo Emerson

It is one of the most beautiful compensations of this life that no man can sincerely try to help another without helping himself.

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

Marte Dressler

Love is not getting but giving.

Peyton Conway March

There is a wonderful mythical law of nature that the three things we crave most in life—happiness, freedom, and peace of mind—are always attained by giving them to someone else.

Dr. Dennis Jaffe in his book Healing From Within says, “Evidence is mounting that over-involvement with one-self, at the expense of the community, leads to psychological dislocation that results not only in anxiety but in various psychological ailments as well.”

Leo Tolstoy

The sole meaning of life is to serve humanity.

HOW MUCH SHOULD I GIVE?

This is a very personal decision. Many Christians use the Bible’s tithe as a guide.

They may:

- Offer 10% of their income
- Use 10% as a starting point, and increase the amount over time
- Set 10% as a goal, and try to work up to it

Many divide their gifts—they give half to the parish, and half to other church and community charities.

Some examples of sacrificial giving
Weekly Income	10%	5%
$150	$15.00	$7.50
$200	$20.00	$10.00
$250	$25.00	$12.50
$300	$30.00	$15.00
$350	$35.00	$17.50
$400	$40.00	$20.00
$450	$45.00	$22.50
$500	$50.00	$25.00
$1,000	$100.00	$50.00

BEFORE YOU DECIDE

How much to give:

- Pray for guidance.
- Talk it over with your family.
- Reflect on the meaning of “sacrifice.”
- Giving a bit more than feels comfortable can make your gift all the more selfless—and all the more satisfying.

So—

GIVE THANKS THROUGH SACRIFICIAL GIVING!

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

- Share the gifts that God has given you.
- Experience the joy that putting God first in your life can bring.
- Set a loving example by giving regularly.

“Give liberally and be ungrudging when you do so, for on this account the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake.”

--Deuteronomy 15:10

Excerpt from Tithing Is More Than the Number Ten
A Sermon by Albert C. Winn

Did you ever see a ship launched? There she sits on the dry land, shored up by beams, perfectly safe, looking altogether out of place and utterly useless. Then the beams are removed and the champagne is broken across her bow. And, very slowly at first, but gathering speed and momentum she slides down the ways until she splashes into the water. And there is a sort of a shudder, and she rights herself. Then she's afloat. She is where she belongs. She's beautiful and useful, and terribly exciting. That is what happens when a Christian, including a minister or a presbytery stewardship chairperson, or synod stewardship chairperson, or staff person—when a Christian decides to launch out and begin to live by what we have called the deeply imbedded principles of tithing. Of course, I hope we raise the budget next year, the general assembly's budget, the synod's budget, the presbytery's budget, and the local church budget from which all the others come. But that is not a matter of eternal importance. What is eternally important is how many of our people, and how many of you this year, will take the risk and move down the ways of their lives until—splash—they are afloat where they belong, on the broad adventurous ocean of the love and mercy of God.

Excerpts from A Stewardship Tour of the Bible
By Albert C. Winn

The Gospels

Jesus is, of course, the greatest stewardship teacher of them all, and the four Gospels are a mine of stewardship texts. Luke presents a dazzling array of stewardship parables: the two forgiven debtors (7:41-43); the good Samaritan (10:29-37); the rich fool (12:16-21); the faithful and wise steward (12:42-48); the fruitless fig tree (13:6-9); the unjust steward (16:1-9); the rich man and Lazarus (16:19-31); the pounds (19:11-17). Add to those the parables in Matthew about the treasure hidden in a field (13:44); the pearl of great price (13:45-46); the unforgiving servant (18:23-25); the laborers in the vineyard (20:1-16); the wise and foolish maidens (25:1-13); the talents (25:14-30); and finally the parable, or better the judgement scene, where all the passion of the prophets reaches a crescendo: In as much as you have done it (or have not done it) to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters you have done it (or have not done it) to me (25:31-46).

And then there are those brief, pungent poignant sayings. From Mark: “For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it” (Mark 8:35). “How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God” (Mark 10:23). “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age...with persecutions and in the age to come eternal life” (Mark 10:29-30). “Give to the emperor the things that are the emperor's and to God the things that are God's” (Mark 12:17). “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on” (Mark 12:43-44). And from Matthew, “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also” (Matthew 6:19-21). “You cannot serve God and wealth” (Matthew 6:24). “But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well” (Matthew 6:33).

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

And from Luke: “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions” (Luke 12:15). “From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required” (Luke 12:48). In the Fourth Gospel, we find the stewardship of time: “We must work the works of him that sent me while it is day: night is coming when no one can work” (John 9:4). And we have an arresting statement of God’s own stewardship: “God so love the world that he gave his only son” (John 3:16).

“What do you have that you did not receive?” (1Corinthians 4:7); “If I give away all my possessions...but do not have love, I gain nothing: (1 Corinthians 13:3); “Be sure of this, ... no one who is greedy (that is, an idolater), has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God (Ephesians 5:5).”

The biblical study of stewardship is uncomfortable when its aim is simply to find a few texts that will separate Presbyterians from enough of their surplus cash to keep the institutional church running one more year. It is far more uncomfortable when its aim is to lay out the whole biblical panorama of stewardship and to show its application, not just to Sunday giving, but to the economic order and style of life to which we have become accustomed. As our culture grows more and more selfish, more and more materialistic, as we approach the limits of our planet, such a study becomes a matter of life and death. May the Holy Spirit give us the courage to listen to the whole of God’s Word and to reshape our lives as true stewards of all God’s gifts.

1. “It’s amazing to me that Jack (Whittaker) giving $17 million is such big news, when Jesus gave everything and there is no news.” — Gerald S. Abreu, co-beneficiary of the West Virginia lottery winner’s title to three pastors (fl. 2002)
2. “If ye love wealth greater than liberty, the tranquillity of servitude greater than the animating contest for freedom, go home from us in peace. We seek not your counsel, nor your arms. Crouch down and lick the hand that feeds you; May your chains set lightly upon you, and may posterity forget that ye were our countrymen.” — Samuel Adams (1722-1803)
3. “Seek joy in what you give not in what you get.” — Anonymous
4. “Real charity doesn’t care if it’s tax deductible or not.” — Anonymous
5. “The Dead Sea is the dead sea because it continually receives and never gives.” — Anonymous
6. “Thank the Lord that you can give instead of depending on others to give to you.” — Anonymous
7. “Charity begins at home and generally dies from lack of outdoor exercise.” — Anonymous
8. “Of all the varieties of virtue, liberality is the most beloved.” — Aristotle (384-322 B.C.)
9. “Money is a great treasure that only increases as you give it away.” — Lord Francis Bacon (1561-1626)
10. “A man should fear when he enjoys only the good he does publicly. Is it not, publicity rather than charity, which he loves? Is it not vanity, rather than benevolence, that gives such charities?” — Henry Ward Beecher (1813-87)
11. “Watch lest prosperity destroy generosity.” — Henry Ward Beecher (1813-87)
12. “We can either use our money to serve our God or our god will be our money.” — Denny Bellesi (1951-)
13. “It is an anomaly of modern life that many find giving to be a burden. Such persons have omitted a preliminary giving. If one first gives himself to the Lord, all other giving is easy.” — John S. Bonnell (1893-1992)
14. “Examples are few of men ruined by giving.” — Christian Bovée

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

15. “It is possible to give without loving, but it is impossible to love without giving.” — Richard Braunstein
16. “Be charitable before wealth makes thee covetous.” — Sir Thomas Browne (1605-82)
17. “Generosity lies less in giving much than in giving at the right moment.” — Jean de La Bruyère (1645-96)
18. “You have not lived until you have done something for someone who can never repay you.” — John Bunyan (1628-88)
19. “He who bestows his goods upon the poor shall have as much again, and ten times more.” — John Bunyan (1628-88)
20. “A man there was, and they called him mad; the more he gave, the more he had.” — John Bunyan (1628-88)
21. “Getters generally don’t get happiness; givers get it.” — Charles H. Burr
22. “Giving frees us from the familiar territory of our own needs by opening our mind to the unexplained worlds occupied by the needs of others.” — Barbara Bush (1925-)
23. “We must make the invisible kingdom visible in our midst.” — John Calvin (1509-64)
24. “It is more difficult to give money away intelligently than it is to earn it in the first place.” — Andrew Carnegie (1835-1919)
25. “We make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give.” — Winston Churchill (1874-1965)
26. “Posthumous charities are the very essence of selfishness when bequeathed by those who, even alive, would part with nothing.” — Charles Caleb Colton (1780-1832)
27. “Public charities and benevolent associations for the gratuitous relief of every species of distress, are peculiar to Christianity; no other system of civil or religious policy has originated them; they form its highest praise and characteristic feature.” — Charles Caleb Colton (1780-1832)
28. “No person was ever honored for what he received. Honor has been the reward for what he gave.” — President Calvin Coolidge (1872-1933)
29. “Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord they God which he hath given thee.” — Deuteronomy 16:17
30. “He is no fool who gives what he can not keep to gain what he can not lose.” — Jim Elliot (1927-56)
31. “Give naught, get same. Give much, get same.” — Malcolm Forbes (1919-90)
32. “No one has ever become poor by giving.” — Anne Frank (1929-45)
33. “Charity gives itself rich; covetousness hoards itself poor.” — German Proverb
34. “The truly generous is truly wise, and he who loves not others, lives unblest.” — Bishop Home (1722-1808)
35. “If you haven’t got any charity in your heart, you have the worst kind of heart trouble.” — Bob Hope (1903-)

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

36. "I have watched hundreds of Christians in my time become financially blessed then develop an acquisitive streak that in turn makes their souls as metallic as the coins they seek." — Selwyn Hughes
37. "Remember this—you can't serve God and Money, but you can serve God with money." — Selwyn Hughes
38. "The charity that hastens to proclaim its good deeds, ceases to be charity. And is only pride and ostentation." — William Hutton (1723-1815)
39. "Dearest lord, teach me to be generous; teach me to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost." — Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556)
40. "It is more blessed to give than to receive." — Jesus, in Acts 20:35
41. "A road that perhaps more than any other leads to self atrophy is undedicated money." — E. Stanley Jones (1884-1973)
42. "You only get to keep what you give away." — Sheldon Kopp
43. "The only investment I ever made which has paid consistently increasing dividends is the money I have given to the Lord." — James L. Kraft (1874-1953)
44. "The greatest pleasure I know is to do a good action by stealth, and to have it found out by accident." — Charles Lamb (1775-1834)
45. "Let him who exhorts others to give, give himself." — Latin Proverb
46. "Nothing that you have not given away will ever be really yours." — Sinclair Lewis (1885-1951)
47. "To give without any reward, or any notice, has a special quality of its own." — Anne Morrow Lindbergh (1906-2001)
48. "I will place no value on anything I have or possess except in relation to the Kingdom of Christ. If anything I have will advance that Kingdom, it shall be given or kept whichever will best promote the glory of Him to whom I owe all my hopes, both for time and eternity." — David Livingstone (1813-1873)
49. "Give what you have. To someone it may be better than you dare to think." — Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807-82)
50. "The gift without the giver is rare." — James Russell Lowell (1819-91)
51. "Not what we give, but what we share, For the gift without a giver is bare. Who gives himself with alms feeds three, Himself, his hungering neighbor and Me." — James Russell Lowell (1819-91)
52. "The heart of a giver makes the gift dear and precious." — Martin Luther (1483-1546)
53. "I have held many things in my hands, and I have lost them all. But whatever I have placed in God's hands, that I still possess." — Martin Luther (1483-1546)
54. "Generosity during life is a very different thing from generosity in the hour of death; one proceeds from genuine liberality and benevolence, the other from pride or fear." — Horace Mann

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

55. “If it is more blessed to give than to receive, then most of us are content to let the other fellow have the greater blessing.” — Shailer Matthews (1863-1941)
56. “The worship offering [is] a pure gift to God in thankful-ness for what we have already received. It should therefore be an exciting and major part of the service.” — Lynn A. Miller
57. “Stewardship is the act of organizing your life so that God can spend you.” — Lynn A. Miller
58. “I am convinced that the devil has caused the subject of giving to stir up resistance and resentment among God’s people because he knows there are few ways of spiritual enrichment like the exercise of faithful stewardship.” — Stephen Olford
59. “The gift derives its value from the rank of the giver.” — Ovid (43 B.C.-17 A.D.)
60. “He who is not liberal with what he has, does but deceive himself when he thinks he would be liberal if he had more.” — William S. Plumer
61. “One man gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want.” — Proverbs 11:24
62. “He that gives all, though but little, gives much; because God looks not to the quantity of the gift, but to the quality of the givers.” — Francis Quarles (1592-1644)
63. “Proportion thy charity to the strength of thine estate, lest God proportion thine estate to the weakness of thy charity. Let the lips of the poor be the trumpet of thy gift, lest in seeking applause, thou lose thy reward. Nothing is more pleasing to God than an open hand and a closed mouth.” — Francis Quarles (1592-1644)
64. “I never would have been able to tithe the first million dollars I ever made if I had not tithed my first salary, which was $1.50 per week.” — John D. Rockefeller, Sr. (1839-1937)
65. “Think of giving not as a duty but as a privilege.” — John D. Rockefeller, Jr. (1874-1961)
66. “He who gives while he lives, get to know where it goes.” — Percy Ross (1916-2001)
67. “A benefit consists not in that which is done or given, but in the intention of the giver or doer.” — Seneca (4 B.C.-65 A.D.)
68. “Never measure your generosity by what you give, but rather by what you have left.” — Bishop Fulton J. Sheen (1895-1979)
69. “Our true acquisitions lie only in our charities — we gain only as we give.” — William Gilmore Simms (1806-70)
70. “If there be any truer measure of a man than by what he does, it must be by what he gives.” — Robert South (1634-1716)
71. “Almost always the most indigent are the most generous.” — Stanislas, King of Poland (1677-1766)
72. “Defer not charities till death. He that does so is rather liberal of another man’s substance than his own.” — L.M. Stretch (fl. 1800)
73. “A gift is acceptable according to what the giver has, not according to what he has not.” — John R.W. Stott (1921-)

Building a Culture of Generosity

3 W. 63rd Street KCMO 64111 (816) 333-8111
www.church-development.com

74. “We can all be stimulated to greater generosity by the known generosity of others.” — John R.W. Stott (1921-)
75. “We are rich only through what we give: and poor only through what we refuse and keep.” — Anne Swetchine (1782-1857)
76. “He, who gives what he would as readily throw away, gives without generosity; for the essence of generosity is in self-sacrifice.” — Jeremy Taylor (1613-67)
77. “It’s not how much we give but how much love we put into giving.” — Mother Teresa (1910-97)
78. “One promises much, to avoid giving little.” — Luc, Marquis de Vauvenargues (1715-47)
79. “I believe with all of my heart that God’s people possess God’s provision to accomplish and fulfill God’s purposes in the world.” — Joel Vestal
80. “If I cannot give bountifully, yet will I give freely.” — Arthur Warwick
81. “Earn as much as you can. Save as much as you can. Invest as much as you can. Give as much as you can.” — John Wesley (1703-91)
82. “I judge all things only by the price they shall gain in eternity.” — John Wesley (1703-91)